The Faith of Abraham

From time to time there is a certain individual who is a sincere and shining example of a person genuinely saved by faith.

Abram grew up in the Chaldean city of Ur among a thoroughly pagan and idolatrous people. Yet, when God called Abram, he responded in faith and became Abraham, the father of the Jewish nation.

In today's study, we will see that the faith of Abraham made him a shining example of a man genuinely saved by God's grace.
