Throughout history the two most powerful systems in the world have been the religious system and the eco-political system.

Worldliness and wickedness have been continually connected to these two influential systems. In the end, God’s wrath will be poured out without measure on the worldliness of “Mystery Babylon” (17:5).

In Revelation 18:1-24, John is given a vision of God’s final judgment on “Mystery Babylon”—the wicked eco-political system of the world.
