In this world today, we are living in a very dark and dangerous time. It's getting really crazy out there, and it is common for people to find themselves dealing with real feelings of fear and insecurity.

As true believers in Christ, we have an eternal security that transcends the circumstances of times. We are more secure in Christ in times of trouble than those who are without Christ in times of peace.

In today's study, we will see that the eternal security of the believer is one of the great truths of our faith.
