

Gospel Threads

Dr. Stephen Hall

(Sharing the Gospel in everyday life)

February 17, 2016

Many Christians in the American church think the job of evangelism is for only the 'super' Christians. Regular, common folk, like us, do not have the tools, training, or experience to lead a person from death to life. We need a preacher to do that work. This sad thought shows the reason we need to reboot our thinking.

Key Truth: We must take the opportunities God gives us in _____ to share the Gospel.

How can we thread the Gospel into everyday conversations?

1. Live the _____. (Matthew 5:13-16)

If you act like a fool outside of church, you discredit everything you say about the gospel of Christ.

Here is the formula Christ taught his disciples on the hillside that day.

$$HP + CP + CC = MI$$

Salt accomplishes 3 things.

1. Salt makes us _____.
2. Salt _____ things up.
3. Salt _____.

Light makes things _____.

2. Be _____. (1 Peter 3:13-17)

Know how to present the gospel in an understandable way.

3. Be _____. (Colossians 4:2-6)

Set your mind to take the action God is calling you toward.

How can we be intentional about threading the gospel in everyday life?

$$HP \text{ _____ } + CP \text{ _____ } + CC \text{ _____ } = MI \text{ (Maximum Impact)}$$

(Formula Found in Chapter 3 of Becoming a Contagious Christian by Bill Hybels.)