

The Requirement of Faith
Romans 9:30-33

Would you ever require your children to do something that you knew they could not do and then punish them for not doing it? As loving parents, I can't imagine we would ever do something like that.

What about God? God is love. Love is His very essence. I can't image the God of the Bible doing anything like that. However, there are those who think otherwise. Some think this is exactly what He does.

In today's study, Paul explains that Israel had broken their covenant with God because they failed the requirement of faith.
