If you could take a long walk and have a little talk with anyone in the world, whom would you choose? A lot of people come to mind, but I'm sure that many of us would choose to have a little talk with Jesus.

On that day—“that very day”—that Jesus rose from the dead, there are two people who got to do this very thing.

In today's study, we meet a man named Cleopas and his companion who got to have a long walk and a little talk with the risen Christ.

LEARNING FROM GOD'S WORD . . .

➔ That day when the _____ comes to you, you can either turn Him away or urge Him to stay.

1. Some people _____ walk away from Christ (v. 13-21).
  - They may be _____ about His identity (v. 13-19).
  - They may be _____ by religious hypocrisy (v. 20).
  - They may be _____ by false expectations (v. 21).

Jn. 6:66-69

2. Some are _____ to believe in Christ (v. 22-27).

Ex. 12:23; Nu. 21:8-9; Jn. 3:14-15; Ps. 22:16b-18; Is. 53:5-6

3. Some will _____ and turn to the risen Christ (v. 28-35).

Mt. 13:15-16

RESPONDING TO GOD'S WORD . . .

- ✓ Do you realize why it was necessary for Christ to _____?
- ✓ Will you turn Him away or urge Him to _____?
