

It's Time to Wake Up

The American church is on the precipice of a spiritual recession. Our membership is shrinking, young Christians are fleeing, and the culture around us is quickly turning hostile and antagonistic. How can we avoid a devastating collapse (John S. Dickerson, The Great Evangelical Recession)?

In American today, people of faith desperately need a wake-up call. If we refuse to wake up to the crisis of faith surrounding us, a total spiritual collapse cannot be prevented.

In today's study, a great man of God recognized the urgent need to give a spiritual wake-up call to the people of faith in his day.
