In this life people treasure many things. It's sobering to think that someday we will leave all our earthly treasures behind.

The only timeless and priceless treasure we have is the Word of God. The soul of man and the Word of God are the only two things on earth that are eternal. How could we not cherish and consume God's Word?

In our text, we have the most comprehensive statement ever written of the absolute authority and complete sufficiency of God's Word.

The Main Thought...
