

WRONG WAY

A Study of Jonah

Running with No Place to Hide
Jonah 1:1-2:1

Dr. Bill Wilks
January 11, 2017

Have you ever tried to run from God? When it comes to your relationship with God, you can run, but you cannot hide.

God always knows where you are in relation to Him. He knows when you are living in obedience to His will and He knows when you are not.

In our text, Jonah foolishly thought he could run from God, but he discovered there was no place to hide.

The Main Thought...

➔ It's foolish to think that you can _____ from God.

Background: Jonah's call to preach to the Assyrian Ninevites.

1. _____ to God can bring storms to our lives (v. 1-4).

Heb. 12:6a; Num. 32:23

2. _____ people can get caught in our storms (v. 5a).

Josh. 7:4-5, 10-12

3. _____ can result from running from God (v. 5b-6).

Ps. 32:3-5

4. _____ can be found in the midst of the storm (v. 7-2:1).

Luke 15:17

Returning to God...

- We must _____ to ourselves.
- We must _____ our sin to God.