

Invest with Compassion

The Most Worthy Investment Deuteronomy 6:1-9

Dr. Bill Wilks
January 15, 2017

Of all the investments you can make in life, none is more essential than investing in your family. When you wisely invest in your family, there will be both personal and global rewards.

An opposite reality is true as well. To fail to invest in your family will have great consequences on both personal and global scale. We cannot measure the global consequences of failed families.

In our text, Moses taught the children of Israel the supreme importance of wisely investing in their families.

The Main Thought...

➤ Investing in your family is the most _____ and rewarding investment you will ever make.

1. We must _____ God's will completely (v. 1-3).

1 Sam. 15:22; Jam. 1:22

2. We must _____ our Lord fervently (v. 4-6).

Mt. 22:36-38

3. We must _____ our children diligently (v. 7-9).

• We must teach them _____ (v. 7).

• We must teach them _____ (v. 8-9).

Eph. 6:1-4; Titus 2:1-7a

Some thoughts to consider:

- What is your ultimate _____ for your family?
- What is your _____ responsibility to the family?
- What happens when you do your _____ but don't succeed?