The assurance of salvation and promise of eternal life in heaven are among the believer's greatest joys.

Believers in Christ do not live with uncertainty regarding the afterlife, but have an abiding confidence that the life to come is even better than this present life. However, this assurance is only for genuine believers (1 Jn. 2:19; 3:10).

In this text, John taught about the assurance of salvation that genuine believers possess through faith in Jesus Christ.
