

The Neighbor Relationship
Luke 10:25-37

Dr. Bill Wilks
May 21, 2017

A typical definition for "neighbor" is a person who lives near another. Subject to where you live, you may have good neighbors or bad ones.

For people of faith, Jesus changes the definition of a neighbor. In the eyes of Jesus, the big question is what kind of neighbor are you?

In this study, Jesus shows us who our neighbors are and how we should love them.

Main Thought...

➔ We are called by God to be _____ neighbors.

1. A _____ about who is my neighbor (v. 25-30).

Phil. 2:4

2. An _____ of how I should love my neighbor (v. 30-35).

- You can be a _____ to your neighbor (v. 30).
- You can be too _____ for your neighbor (v. 31-32).
- You can bear the _____ of your neighbor (v. 33-35).

Pr. 3:27; Gal. 6:2; Mt. 23:23

3. A _____ for why I should love my neighbor (v. 36-37).

1 Pt. 2:24

Final Thoughts...

- Do you realize your great _____ for Jesus today?
- Do you understand the _____ of His compassion for you?
- Do you need to _____ your life so you can invest more in others?