Throughout the Bible there is a common theme. God consistently calls ordinary people to join Him for extraordinary assignments and His assignments will always require us to step out in faith.

There is one extraordinary assignment that Christ has given to every ordinary believer. Our main mission is His Great Commission.

In today's study, we will see that Paul, like Jesus, modeled a lifestyle of making and multiplying disciples.

Main Thought...

➤ Our _____ in life is the Great Commission of Jesus Christ.

1. To make and multiply disciples is _____ in us (v. 1).

Mk. 3:13-14; Mt. 4:19; 28:18-20

2. To make and multiply disciples is _____ to us (v. 2).

2 Tm. 2:15; 3:10-11a, 16; Tit. 2:1-8

3. To make and multiply disciples is _____ of us (v. 3-7).

- We must have the _____ of a soldier (v. 3-4).
- We must have the _____ of an athlete (v. 5).
- We must have the _____ of a farmer (v. 6-7).

Jn. 13:15; 14:12

Final Thoughts...

➤ _____ that you can live a life of making and multiply disciples.

➤ _____ equipped and empowered for a life of making and multiplying disciples.
