Throughout the story of Joseph, we read that “God was with him.” God was with Joseph when he was loved by his father and hated by his brothers. He was with Joseph in moments of great trust and friendship and in persecution. God was with Joseph as a prisoner and as a prince. God was with Joseph in the highs and lows of life using him to accomplish a greater purpose for His glory. It is evident that the Spirit of God was upon Joseph (Genesis 41:38).
