

THE RETURN

A Study of Revelation

The Judgments of Woe Revelation 9:1-21

In our study of Revelation, we have witnessed the breaking of each seal of the seven-sealed scroll. At the breaking of the seventh seal, we saw another series of rapid-fire judgments—the seven trumpets of judgment.

The first four trumpets of judgment resulted in God’s wrath on the trees, the sea, the rivers, and in the sky. The last three blasts of the trumpets bring terrifying judgments of “woe” (Rev. 8:13).

In our text, all the power of hell literally breaks loose on earth as the threefold prophesy of “woe” begins to unfold.

Main Thought...

➔ Only a loving and merciful God would give such a _____ warning of the terrifying judgments that are coming on earth.

1. The _____ of Hell’s Angels (v. 1-11)

- Their _____ Sting (v. 1-6)
- Their _____ Appearance (v. 7-11)

Is. 14:12-15; Lk. 8:30-31; 2 Pt. 2:4; Jude 6

2. The _____ of Hell’s Army (v. 12-19)

- The _____ of the Army (v. 12-16)
- The _____ of the Army (v. 17-19)

Rev. 16:12-16

3. The _____ a Hellish Crowd (v. 20-21)

Rev. 16:9, 11, 21

Final Thoughts...

- ➔ Do you know that demons are _____ in the world today?
- ➔ Do you know how important it is to _____ for the lost?
