

DAVID

TRIUMPH & TRAGEDY

A Story of Divine Friendship

1 Samuel 17:57-18:2; 23:15-18

Josh Wilks

November 3, 2019

One with many friends may be harmed, but there is a friend who stays closer than a brother (Proverbs 18:24).

There are plenty of people who have lots of friends. Especially today when you can call someone who follows you on social media a friend. However, it is rare for one to find a friend that is closer than a brother. We long to for community and fellowship. We desire to be popular. We strive to make friends, but how often do we pursue a divine friendship?

A divine friendship is one that inspires spiritual growth in the Lord.

Today, we are going to take a look at the divine friendship of David and Jonathan.

THERE IS GREAT BLESSING IN A DIVINE FRIENDSHIP

1. Divine friendship _____ (17:57-18:2).
2. Divine friendship _____ (18:3-4).
3. Divine friendship _____ (23:15-18).
Proverbs 27:17, Philippians 2:3-8
4. Divine friendship _____
John 15:11-15