

Who Will Go for Us?

Dr. Bill Wilks

Isaiah 6:1-8

July 5, 2020

It is a wonderful blessing to live in a land that is free. As Americans, we should be thankful for our freedom. We are richly blessed. However, we live in a land that desperately needs a fresh encounter with God.

People and nations that continue to sink into the depths of sin will eventually self-destruct.

In our text, Isaiah the Prophet had a fresh encounter with the living God that shook him to his knees.

Main Thought...

➔ A fresh _____ with the living God will result in a fresh _____ to the will of God.

1. We must realize our _____ for God (v. 1).

2 Chron. 26:3-5, 16, 21; Pr. 16:18

2. We must recognize the _____ of God (v. 2-3).

Rev. 4:2, 6b, 8

3. We must repent of our _____ to God (v. 4-5).

Isa. 5:20-21, 24b

4. We must recommit our _____ to God (v. 6-8).

• There is a _____ (v. 6-7).

• There is a _____ (v. 8).

Acts 3:19-20; 1 Jn. 1:9; Mk. 16:15

Final Thoughts...

➔ Do you need a fresh encounter with the _____ God?

➔ Will you make a fresh surrender to the _____ of God?
