To get more from your reading, use the SPACE method by writing down one personal application for each daily reading assignment. Every day, we want to make SPACE in our hearts for God's Word by asking five simple questions. Is there a:

- Sin to confess?
- Promise to claim?
- Attitude to change?
- Command to obey?
- Example to follow?

A Note from Pastor Bill

Hey NorthPark Family. In our Old Testament reading plan for 2021, you will read 260 stories from the Old Testament in one year by reading one chapter a day for five days a week. These stories will include: The Fall of Man, The Call of Abraham, The Sacrifice of Isaac, Joseph and Potiphar's Wife, Moses and the Burning Bush, The Ten Commandments, The Fall of Jericho, Gideon and His Army, The Love of Ruth, David and Goliath, David's Mighty Men, Naboth's Vineyard, The Valley of Dry Bones, Daniel in the Lion's Den, Jonah and the Great Fish, and many more.

You can use this checklist to check off the chapters you read or you can use the D-Life Journal for Old Testament 1 to write down a brief application point for each chapter. We also encourage you to connect with a discipleship group to join in an interactive discussion of 52 of these great stories. In addition, I will be preaching through our Old Testament reading plan during 2021. Each week our Sunday message will come from one of the five chapters that you will read. It's going to be a great year of Bible study and spiritual growth. I hope you will commit to systematically reading through the Old Testament with us in the New Year.
